

Customer Microservice

Simple Customer Microservice provides basic CRUD operations for Web and Mobile channel. An authorization token need to be sent in the header for any API Invocation. Authorization is role based so the token contains roles ('admin' role is configured for this service) the service reads the token to find admin role and allows users to invoke APIs.

End Point: `http://localhost:8080/Sazi/customer/1.0/customer`

